

Auditor of Public Accounts
Adam H. Edelen

Archived Videos, Presentations from Inaugural Good Government Summit Now Available

More than 200 people attended the inaugural Good Government Summit in Northern Kentucky this week. The feedback has been tremendous and many of you asked for the PowerPoint presentations that our expert speakers delivered. They are now available, along with videos of each presentation, on the Auditor's website.

Due to the overwhelmingly positive response we received, we plan to replicate the summit across the Commonwealth. We are in the early planning stages and will keep you posted about plans for future nearby summits in the event that you were unable to attend this week.

This summit was about giving public officials the tools they need to operate their agencies with the upmost accountability and transparency. Far too often, the headlines are about the bad apples, but the strong attendance in Erlanger showed that the majority of public officials want to do the right thing. They want to give Kentuckians the government they deserve.

Thank you for your interest and your service to the Commonwealth.

Sincerely,
